"DAYS OF '49'"

Synopsis

~~Chapter~~ 5

"A WEB OF LIES"

Senora, pursued by a pack of wolves, has taken refuge in a tree and is rescued by Captain Sutter. They go back to the Fort.

During this time "Cal" Coleman is guiding the ill-fated Donner party through the mountains where they are overcome by the deep snow and practically without provisions are unable to proceed further. They have to kill their animals for food and suffer unspeakable privations. "Cal" and one of the party leave on a horse to obtain help. After battling their way through the deep snow they get within a few miles of Sutter's Fort and the man from the Donner party is so weak that he cannot go any further. "Cal" puts him on the horse and tells him to go on to the Fort and he (Cal) being stronger will wait. In the meantime Arabella Ryan and Marsdon have been notified by Sutter that he will not consent to be a party to the dream of Empire any longer and he withdraws all his support and co-operation with that plan. Arabella and Marsdon in an interview with Sutter are told by him that he means just what he has said and Marsdon goes leaving Arabella with Sutter.

Marsdon seeks out Senora and tells her that it is time she knew the truth. That Sutter not he was the one responsible for her father's death. He convinces her by saying that he cannot gain anything by her father's death but Sutter gains all. Senora rushes to Sutter and finds the Ryan woman in his arms. Senora accuses him of deceiving her and taking her lands, then rushes to her room and locks the door. Sutter turns upon Marsdon who has come in and accuses him of telling this lie to Senora, they have a terrific struggle during which the scene ends.
